james & lindsay Ltd

Professional Indemnity Insurance arranged by the commercial insurance experts at James & Lindsay will help protect your business from the financial expense posed by legal claims made against you by clients. We will offer you advice and guidance to provide you with bespoke cover that takes your profession into account.

Professional Indemnity Insurance

Professional Indemnity Insurance (PI Insurance) is designed to provide protection from claims made against you and at James & Lindsay we can help make sure you have the right cover in place so you're protected from the kind of claims you might face in your profession.

PI Insurance is compulsory for a number of professions so if your livelihood is based on providing advice and services to others, it may well need this form of insurance in place. Even if your trade doesn't require PI Insurance, it could still provide you with vital support by protecting you from the expense of legal action against you.

Available covers include:

- Libel
- Slander
- Wrongful advice
- Malicious falsehood
- Negligence

Don't leave yourself exposed to needless risk – get in touch with James & Lindsay to arrange your Professional Indemnity Insurance policy and practice your trade in confidence.
