Real estate agents need to be confident that the property they own or manage is protected and at James & Lindsay, we're able to help by arranging Real Estate Insurance that's customized to your specific needs.

Real Estate Insurance

Working as a real estate agent requires that specific insurance cover be in place to ensure you and the properties you own or manage remain protected.

Whether you're a commercial real estate owner, a residential property manager or any other sort of property handler, at James & Lindsay we could work with you to provide you with the cover you need. From cover for your buildings and contents themselves to protect them from material damage to liability cover that protects you if a client injures themselves while at your office, or experiences buyer's remorse and accuses you of overcharging for their new home, we're able to tailor your cover to take the risks you face into account.

Available covers include:

- Material damage for buildings and/or contents
- Unoccupied property insurance
- Parking lots and garages cover
- Professional liability insurance
- General liability insurance
- Contract works cover
- Interested parties insurance

Whatever your Real Estate Insurance needs, simply get in touch with James & Lindsay today and we'll help you get the right cover in place so you can practice your profession in confidence.
